

The Refuge Center for Counseling Social Media/Newsletter/Mailing List Statement

The Refuge Center for Counseling, a nonprofit 501c3 organization, is supported in part by many donors, volunteers, and friends. We stay connected with our community through social media, our website, blog, e-newsletters, and postal mail. You, as a client of The Refuge Center for Counseling, are under no obligation to like or follow our public social media pages. It is our policy to not contact clients using their email address or mailing address for non-counseling related matters unless the client elects to give us their information below.
